NO FORM OF NATURE IS INFERIOR TO ART;
FOR THE ARTS MERELY
IMITATE NATURAL FORMS.

Monviso

The Incanto collection is a selection of 25 décors combined with distinctive textures in three different families - the woods, the stones, the patterns. Designed and produced in Italy.

THE ITALIAN WORD
“INCANTO” CAN BE
TRANSLATED INTO SPELL,
CHARM, ENCHANTMENT.

All these meanings recall the effect of being fascinated or enchanted.
Like the décors of this collection.
An incanto.

Each décor is the result of a precise stylistic choice and has been inspired by the natural surroundings, by the most contemporary trends, and by an innate taste for design and art so peculiar to the Italian culture and way of living.

BACK TO THE ORIGIN OF INSPIRATION: THE NATURAL BEAUTY OF ITALY

As arts have been imitating nature since the dawn of times, the Incanto collection gets its inspiration from the surrounding natural beauty and landscape that have been nurturing and shaping men's ability to transform the natural elements into expressions of art.

Etna – Sicily

Woods, stones and patterns décors have been designed to offer the most inclusive experience: not only the visual result astonishingly brings the natural beauties in all interior environments, but the sensory aspect is magnificently enhanced by unique textures that offer a captivating and deep involvement.

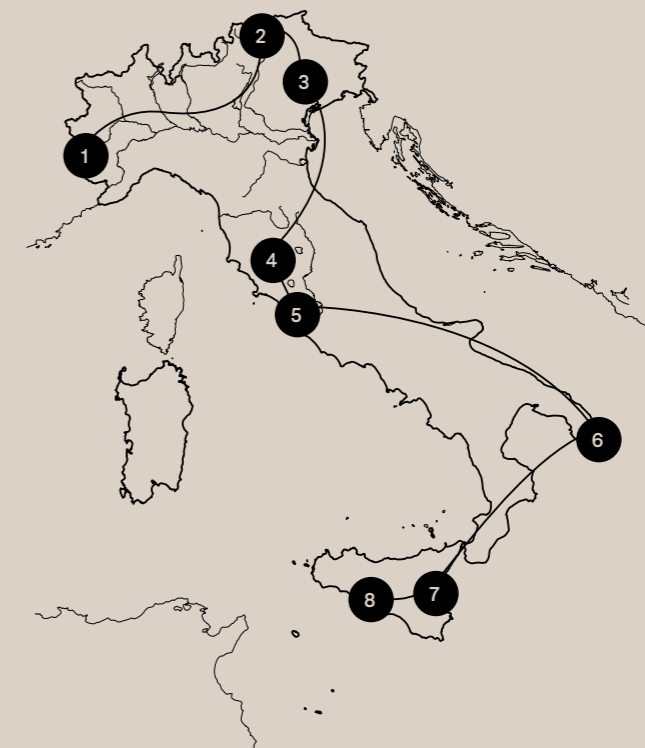

You will be able to feel the deep woodgrains, the natural roughness and unevenness of stones, the tactile elegance of marble veins.

As if by magic, this collection ideally takes you to Italy to explore the natural wonders that shape Italian landmarks in an awesome variety of elements, phenomena, and sceneries.

From the northern alpine borders with their magic woods and stunning rock formations, all along its sandy or cliffy coastlines, down to the black lunar landscapes with smoking volcanic vents, Italy seems forged by capricious ancient gods.

These are the true primordial masterpieces that have inspired the Incanto collection and will shape your next surfaces.

Italy is a natural wonder in itself.
This collection is here to celebrate this incanto.

Product information

HPL is a material that is both easy to work with and extremely strong. Its characteristics make it ideal for a wide range of applications: it is resistant to scratches, impact, abrasion, chemical substances, and heat; easy to clean and hygienic; suitable for contact with food.

All the Incanto décors are available in 0.8 mm thickness. A selection of décors is available in 1 mm thickness and features a specific colour core perfectly matching with their surface. This allows to have a refined aesthetic match between décor and core in combination with these sophisticated textures. These surfaces give a sense of three-dimensional continuity, versatility to work the material without the need of edge-banding and a greater design freedom.

Five décors are available in 1mm thickness with colour matching core.
